

Website Accessibility Policy

The accessibility of our website is important to us.

At Face to Face, accessibility is important to us. Accessibility is a continual process, not a destination, and we would like to hear from you if you have any feedback for us.

Should you have an issue, please call or email us and we will get back to you shortly to make sure your needs are served and ensure that proper steps are taken so that the problem is not encountered again in the future.

To contact us, please follow the following guidance:

PHONE

Please direct any web accessibility issues to 651.772.5555.
